Considering NYRP for your child?

We are an Syracuse University sponsored program in the department of Recreation Services. We provide free recreational and educational opportunities for children ages 5-13 in the Syracuse area.

NYRP is designed to give community youth, regardless of their economic standing, the opportunity to participate in a safe and structured learning and play environment.

Recreation is available for Basketball, Yoga, Arts and Crafts, Swimming, Tutoring and more!

Sessions are held Saturdays from 9:00am-11:30am

Open registration for the spring session is from 9:00am to 11:30am during program hours in the The Womens' Building on SU’s campus. Parents/Guardians must attend the open registration session.
